

Journal
Office of Legislative Counsel
19 June 1957 - Wednesday

- - -

1. Mr. Amory reported that he and members of his staff had talked to Congressman Bolling of the Joint Economic Committee on the subject of the Russian economy. Certain items in a Committee Report, which our people had assisted in the preparation of, had been criticized by various people throughout the government. Mr. Amory assured Mr. Bolling that the material in his report was correct, and agreed to be of such further assistance as may be desired.